Unfinished business: There was no unfinished business.

New business: The future of the IV Therapy Committee was discussed. It was discussed that there is statutory requirement for an IV advisory committee. Discussion was held about the regulations which has specific requirement with the composition of the committee. It has been difficult in maintaining committee with the requirements. Discussion was held if this committee could be combined with the Practice committee. The committee gave M. Blubaugh direction to discuss with the Assistant Attorney General about combining the two committees and if this would meet the statutory requirements.

APPROVED

September 15, 2009

The committee had requested staff to bring statistics from KBON (the licensing data base) relating to trends in IV errors. M. Blubaugh reported that the current software does not have that information.

2008 IV Therapy Report was reviewed with no changes made.

Agenda for next meeting: Future of IV Therapy Committee
Plan/guidelines to review test and competency checklist

Adjourn: 2:15 P.M.
